PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents,

It's hard to believe that we are in week 8 already and have only 8 days of school left till the half-way mark in the year!

We are now at the busy end of term with assessment and report writing. Reports will be sent home on the last day of term June 26 with parent interviews scheduled for early next term July 30.

Our first Prep open day for 2019 was held on Tuesday 11th June. We had 18 children attend. One of the local child care centres here in Gordonvale came along as well as a few parents from the community who are looking for a school to send their child/ren to next year. Many thanks to Mrs. Fulwood, Mrs. Moggs and Mrs. Ueese for organising and running the morning. Another Prep Open Day is planned for next term.

This Sabbath our school will be taking the church service at the Cairns Adventist Church which followed by a picnic lunch at the pirate ship park along the Esplanade. Students are involved in the whole program with assistance from the teachers. All are welcome.

Lastly, Jump Rope for Heart will be held next Friday 21st June. It will be in our undercover area from 1.45pm and all are welcome. I know a number of classes have been practicing for a few weeks now and I am sure we are to be wowed by their performances.

As this will be the last newsletter for the term I hope everyone has a safe and happy holiday.

God bless
Adam

PREP OPEN DAY—11TH JUNE

What a fantastic morning we had here at our first prep open day of the year! We got to meet 3 of our prospective 2020 students and also Make connections with our community through the attendance of 15 kindergarten children who joining us from natural beginnings.

It was great to see all the children participating and showing their enjoyment with the rotational groups designed to cater for all areas of development through craft, inside play, a fun maths activity and an outdoor obstacle course incorporating our playground.

A big thanks to all those who came. We hope to see you all again at our next prep open day in term three along with some new faces.

Eli – 'When the Dad dropped off the money and homework from the helicopter'

CHAPPIES CORNER

Parents are Priceless!

Back in the day there used to be an ad for MasterCard. It named off all the things that MasterCard could buy and then it listed what MasterCard could not buy because that experience was priceless.

Most children love for us to buy them things. But we can't buy them what they need the most...love. There is no substitute for our presence, our time, our love.

Children want us, not just our money and provision. Your child doesn't need stuff; he needs you.

So, what are you giving your child? In the book, Seventy-Seven Irrefutable Truths of Parenting: Foundations for Godly Parenting, Larry and Judy Keefauver encourage parents to consider how much quality time they spend with their little people. Want to give it a shot? Summarize the last three days and write down the amount of time you have spent with your child(ren).

Day 1: _____

Day 2: _____

Day 3: _____

Now ask the Father: Am I spending enough time with my child so that what he really gets is me and not stuff?

And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates (Deut. 6:6-9).
